The Da Vinci Code begins

Welcome to the 2006 Selwyn House School Gala Event – the Montreal premiere of The Da Vinci Code.

Art does sometimes imitate life. Planning and executing a successful fundraiser may be as complex a challenge as searching for the Holy Grail, and our dedicated team of collaborators has succeeded beautifully.

Though controversial, the story of The Da Vinci Code challenges our knowledge and understanding of art, history, geography, symbolism, math, religion, logic and much more. We guarantee you an entertaining evening of mystery and intrigue.

The proceeds from tonight's event benefits the renovations of Coristine Hall (our dining-auditorium-kitchen facilities). In addition, we are pleased to be able to make a donation to the Montreal Children's Hospital.

If you had suggested twenty years ago that we would be hosting 400 glamorous guests at a megaplex cinema owned by one of the school's generous benefactors (Vince Guzzo - Class of '86), for a Hollywood blockbuster, we might have questioned your sense of probability. Tonight, however, we ask you to suspend reality, to sit back, relax and enjoy the show!

Headmaster, Selwyn House School

Live Auction Rules

1. Selwyn House School herein is referred to as the "seller." The Auctioneer is the agent for the seller. The Auction will begin at approximately 8:20 p.m., Thursday, May 18, 2006 and will continue until all items are sold.
2. To bid in the Live Auction, simply raise your numbered program so that the Auctioneer or a spotter can accept your bid. The Auctioneer reserves the right to reject any bid that is merely a fractional advance over the prior bid.
3. Your verbal bid is a contract to buy. All sales are final. There will be no exchanges or transfers.
4. Acknowledgement by the successful bidder must be made immediately following the item's sale, either to an auction "runner" or at the cashier's table. Full Payment must be made immediately by Mastercard, Visa, American Express, Interac, cash or by cheque payable to Selwyn House Association.
5. All items must be taken home the evening of the auction.
6. All items are sold on an "as is" basis. Any description of auction items is for the sole purpose of identifying the items. The donor/seller disclaims any express or implied warranties with respect to the auction items.
7. Airline & trip arrangements are subject to availability & are to be agreed upon with donors. Taxes & tips are not included unless specifically noted.
8. Group purchases are welcome; however, one person must be responsible for bidding and payment.
9. In the event of a dispute between bidders, or, should the Auctioneer doubt the validity of any bid, the Auctioneer shall have the sole and final absolute authority to resolve the dispute, determine the successful bidder, or resell the item in dispute.
7. Some items in the live auction have a listed official value verified by invoice or a third party. If the winning bid exceeds the listed official value, a tax receipt for the difference between the final bid and the listed official value will be issued to the person paying for the item. If the value of an item is "priceless" no tax receipt will be issued.

Silent Auction Rules

1. Opening: The Silent Auction will open at 6:30 p.m., Thursday, May 18, 2006.
2. Bid Sheets: All items in the Silent Auction have bid sheets attached to the table, in front of, or near to, the item. Persons wanting to make a bid must do so by writing their name and phone number in the appropriate box on the bid sheet. Please press hard to ensure your number is legible on all copies of the bid sheet.
3. Bids: All bids are binding; you may not cancel your bid by scratching it out. The opening bid must be equal to, or exceed the minimum starting bid. All bids need to be in the increments stated on the individual bid sheets. Failure to make bids in this way will result in disqualification of that particular bid. In the case of disqualification, the preceding bidder will be honored.
4. Closing: The Silent Auction will close at 8:15 p.m. If you have successfully bid on an item, you will be given one copy of the bid sheet to take to the cashier. After paying for the item, you must take your receipt to the table to exchange it for your item. Payment may be made by Mastercard, Visa, American Express, Interac, cash or cheque payable: Selwyn House Association. All items must be taken with you that evening after payment is made.
5. Please note: The Auction Committee has attempted to best describe each item on the display boards. Some items are not transferable or may have restrictions.
6. Some items in the silent auction have a listed official value verified by invoice or a third party. If the winning bid exceeds the listed official value, a tax receipt for the difference between the final bid and the listed official value will be issued to the person paying for the item. If the value of an item is "priceless" no tax receipt will be issued.
7. All purchases are final. There will be no exchanges or returns on Auction items.
